ABAI Phishing Scam Alert re: Academic Star Publishing Company

Phishing Scam Alert

It has come to our attention that some of our members have received emails from a journal titled the "Journal of Modern Education Reviews" or the "Modern Education Review" offering dubious publication requests. It should be noted that the evidence suggests this is a phishing scam and we advise anyone receiving this request to avoid opening the email and not to click on any links within. This scam is, unfortunately, nothing new and other similar associations have been targeted in the past:

- <http://www.mededworld.org/AMEE-News/AMEE-Articles/Attention-AMEE-2012-Participants.aspx>

ABAI is exploring which, if any, further action we take to protect our members from this predatory practice. Below is sample of the email one of our members has received:
